

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

JIMMY DEBERRY,

Defendant.

8:16CR93

ORDER

This matter is before the Court on the request of the defendant seeking compassionate release. Filing No. 68. The Defendant seeks a reduction of sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582\(c\)\(1\)\(A\) as amended by Section 603 of the First Step Act, Pub. L. No. 115-391, 132 Stat. 5194 (2018). However, defendant has failed to inform the Court of his attempts, if any, to exhaust his administrative remedies with the prison system. In Section 603 of the First Step Act, Congress amended 18 U.S.C. § 3582\(c\)\(1\)\(A\) to permit defendants to move a sentencing court for compassionate release “after the defendant has fully exhausted all administrative rights to appeal a failure of the Bureau of Prisons to bring a motion on the defendant’s behalf or the lapse of 30 days from the receipt of such a request by the warden of the defendant’s facility, whichever is earlier.” Under the law, it matters not that the COVID-19 pandemic creates a great health risk to many prisoners. Administrative exhaustion under the Act is a jurisdictional prerequisite to this Court making a decision as to compassionate relief.<sup>1</sup> Because the defendant has failed to either (1) inform the Court that he has complied with the exhaustion requirements, or (2) supplied the Court with the appropriate documentation, the Court cannot currently act on this motion. The Court will stay this case for 60 days. Once the exhaustion requirement is met, the Court will lift the stay and reconsider this motion. If the defendant fails to file this information with the Court within the 60 days, the Court will deny the motion. In the interim, the Court will appoint the Federal Public Defender's Office to oversee this case.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. Defendant's motion for compassionate release, Filing No. 68, is stayed;
2. Defendant has 60 days from the date of this Order to file proof of exhaustion with the prison system as discussed herein, and failure to do so will result in dismissal of his motion; and
3. The Public Defender's office, Dave Stickman, is appointed to represent the defendant.

Dated this 29th day of May, 2020.
